Defined Terms: Affiliations and Professional Designations

Several TSW investment professionals are Chartered Financial Analysts, Chartered Alternative Investment Analysts, Chartered Market Technicians, or Registered Representatives; and some are eligible for Sales Incentive Program.

Chartered Financial Analyst (“CFA”): The Chartered Financial Analyst designation has become the most respected and recognized investment credential in the world. To earn a CFA charter, one must have four years of qualified investment work experience, become a member of the CFA Institute, pledge to adhere to the CFA Institute Code of Ethics and Standards of Professional Conduct on an annual basis, apply for membership to a local CFA member society, and complete the CFA Program. The CFA program is organized into three levels, each culminating in a six-hour exam. Completing the program takes most candidates between two and five years.

*Chartered Alternative Investment Analyst (“CAIA”): The Chartered Alternative Investment Analyst is a professional designation offered by the CAIA Association. The CAIA curriculum is designed to provide finance professionals with a broad base of knowledge in alternative investments. To earn a CAIA designation, one must meet one of the following requirements: Bachelor’s or equivalent degree and more than one year of business experience in the financial industry, or four years of experience in the financial industry. The CAIA is a self-study certification program that requires the successful completion of both the Level I and Level II examinations. CAIA designees are required to maintain membership in the CAIA Association and adhere to professional and ethical standards.

†Chartered Market Technician (“CMT”): The Chartered Market Technician is a professional designation offered by the Market Technicians Association, Inc. (“MTA”). The CMT program is designed to provide financial professionals with a broad base of knowledge in the field of technical analysis. To earn the CMT designation, one must have three years of qualified work experience, agree to abide by the MTA Code of Ethics, obtain membership in the MTA, and complete the CMT Program. The CMT Program is organized in three parts, each culminating in an examination.

Registered Representatives: TSW has registered representatives who are licensed with Funds Distributor, LLC which is a third party (unaffiliated with TSW) FINRA registered broker-dealer of the Foreside Financial Group. Funds Distributor is located at 3 Canal Plaza, Suite 100, Portland, ME 04101. Funds Distributor holds the securities licenses for several of TSW’s associates, serving as a limited capacity broker-dealer to investment companies and LLC’s. TSW does not direct any trades through Funds Distributor. For more information on Funds Distributor/Foreside Financial Group, please visit their website at: www.foreside.com.

Sales Incentive Program: Several TSW employees are participants in sales incentive programs. Such programs may provide for trailing incentive payments from specific account revenues which decrease each year for multiple years until exhausted.
