Defined Terms: Affiliations and Professional Designations

*Member of TSW's Investment Policy Committee ("IPC"): The IPC has responsibility for: oversight of all investment strategies and teams including WPS Capital Fund, LLC; setting the asset allocation for equity and balanced accounts; reviewing the research group's commission budget including soft dollars; reviewing trading operations and input from the Trade Management Oversight Committee (TMOC) on best execution; and reviewing portfolio risk and all strategies' performance and attribution vs. benchmarks.

Several TSW investment professionals are Chartered Financial Analysts, Chartered Alternative Investment Analysts, or Registered Representatives; and some are eligible for Sales Incentive or Economic Incentive Programs.

Chartered Financial Analyst ("CFA"): The Chartered Financial Analyst designation has become the most respected and recognized investment credential in the world. To earn a CFA charter, one must have four years of qualified investment work experience, become a member of the CFA Institute, pledge to adhere to the CFA Institute Code of Ethics and Standards of Professional Conduct on an annual basis, apply for membership to a local CFA member society, and complete the CFA Program. The CFA program is organized into three levels, each culminating in a six-hour exam. Completing the program takes most candidates between two and five years.

Chartered Alternative Investment Analyst ("CAIA"): The Chartered Alternative Investment Analyst (CAIA) is a professional designation offered by the CAIA Association. The CAIA curriculum is designed to provide finance professionals with a broad base of knowledge in alternative investments. To earn a CAIA designation, one must meet one of the following requirements: Bachelor's or equivalent degree and more than one year of business experience in the financial industry, or four years of experience in the financial industry. The CAIA is a self-study certification program that requires the successful completion of both the Level I and Level II examinations. CAIA designees are required to maintain membership in the CAIA Association and adhere to professional and ethical standards.

Registered Representatives: TSW has registered representatives who are licensed with Funds Distributor, LLC which is a third party (unaffiliated with TSW) FINRA registered broker-dealer of the Foreside Financial Group. Funds Distributor is located at 3 Canal Plaza, Suite 100, Portland, ME 04101. Funds Distributor holds the securities licenses for several of TSW's associates, serving as a limited capacity broker-dealer to investment companies and LLC's. TSW does not direct any trades through Funds Distributor. For more information on Funds Distributor/Foreside Financial Group, please visit their website at: www.foreside.com.

Economic Incentive Programs: Several TSW employees are participants in economic incentive programs. Such programs may provide for participation in the revenue stream of certain strategies within TSW.

Sales Incentive Programs: Several TSW employees are participants in sales incentive programs. Such programs may provide for trailing incentive payments from specific account revenues which decrease each year for multiple years until exhausted.
